REPORT ON 70TH KANNADA RAJYOTSAVA AND CULTURAL ACTIVITIES-2025-26

Department of Kannada, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and National Service Scheme (NSS), of B.L.D.E.A's New Arts College, Tikota, organized the grand celebration of the 70th Kannada Rajyotsava on 1st November 2025 in the college auditorium. The event was aimed at promoting the spirit of Kannada culture, heritage, and unity among students while recognizing their excellence through the annual Prize Distribution Ceremony.

The programme commenced with the prayer song By Kumari.Rakshita.and formal hoisting of the Karnataka State Flag by the Our Beloved Principal, Sri.P.S.Tolanur,followed by the soulful rendition of the State Anthem "Jaya Bharata Jananiya Tanujate." The auditorium was adorned with the hues of red and yellow, symbolizing the pride and glory of Karnataka. In his inaugural address, highlighted the historical significance of Kannada Rajyotsava and emphasized the importance of preserving and promoting the Kannada language and literature among youth. He also appreciated the efforts of the Department of Kannada for organizing such a meaningful celebration.

The Key Note Address Given By Cultural coordinator Dr. S.B.Navalagund, In his address, emphasized that Kannada is not merely a language but a living expression of Karnataka's cultural soul and collective identity. He traced the historical journey of Kannada from the early inscriptions of Halmidi to the modern literary renaissance and underlined the contributions of great writers such as Pampa, Ranna, Basavanna, Kuvempu, and D. R. Bendre in shaping the intellectual and moral fabric of the state. He urged students to take pride in their mother tongue and to use Kannada confidently in academic, administrative, and digital spaces. According to him, the preservation of Kannada depends not only on celebration days but also on daily practice, creative writing, and active participation in cultural and literary forums.

The IQAC Coordinator Sri.B.S.Belagali Dept of Economics delivered a meaningful and insightful speech on the need and contemporary relevance of Kannada Rajyotsava during the 70th Kannada Rajyotsava Celebration held at B.L.D.E.A's New Arts College, Tikota, on 1st November 2025.In his address, Sri. Belagali highlighted that Kannada Rajyotsava is not only a commemoration of Karnataka's unification but also a reaffirmation of our linguistic pride, cultural identity, and regional unity. He emphasized that the celebration reminds every Kannadiga of the sacrifices made by leaders, writers, and activists who fought tirelessly for the cause of a united Karnataka.

He reflected on how, in today's globalized and digital era, the preservation of Kannada language and culture has become even more crucial. While English and technology dominate education and employment sectors, he stressed that Kannada should continue to be the language of the heart, heritage, and everyday life. He appealed to students and youth to balance modernization with cultural rootedness embracing progress without neglecting their mother tongue. Sri. Belagali also discussed the economic and developmental dimensions of Kannada Rajyotsava, observing that true celebration lies not just in songs and flags, but in ensuring social equity, education, and sustainable development across all Kannada-speaking regions. He pointed out that Karnataka's growth should reflect the spirit of inclusiveness envisioned by great reformers and poets.

He praised the Department of Kannada, IQAC, and NSS units for organizing such a vibrant event that connected language, literature, and learning. He urged everyone to use Kannada confidently in academics, administration, and cultural expressions, noting that a language thrives only when its people use it proudly and productively.

Concluding his speech, Sri. Belagali reminded the gathering that Kannada Rajyotsava is not just a festival, but a responsibility and inspiration to uphold Karnataka's unity, diversity, and dignity. He urged students to be torchbearers of Kannada culture and values in every sphere of life. "Rajyotsava is not merely a day of celebration it is a call to live Kannada, to think Kannada, and to serve Karnataka with pride and purpose."

The Chief Guest of the function, Sri Suresh Jatti, a noted Kannada scholar and cultural activist, delivered an inspiring speech on "Kannada Language: The Soul of Karnataka's Identity." He spoke about the rich linguistic heritage of Karnataka, the contributions of eminent Kannada poets such as Kuvempu, D. R. Bendre, and Shivaram Karanth, and the need for young generations to take pride in their mother tongue.

Following the formal function, a series of cultural activities were presented by the students. These included Kannada patriotic songs, Essay Writing, poetry recitations, and speeches that showcased the cultural diversity and literary beauty of Karnataka. The performances created a vibrant and festive atmosphere, reflecting the unity and creativity of the students.

The celebration was followed by the Prize Distribution Ceremony, where students were honored for their outstanding performance in cultural and literary activities for the academic year 2025–26. The Principal, Chief Guest, and faculty members felicitated the achievers with Cash prize, book and certificates, appreciating their dedication and achievements.

In his concluding remarks, the Coordinator of the Department of Kannada Dr.Santosh Navalagund expressed gratitude to the management, IQAC, NSS, staff members, and students for their wholehearted participation and support in making the event a grand success.

The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks proposed by Sri, S.B.Uppar Dept of kannda followed by the rendition of the National Anthem. The 70th Kannada Rajyotsava Celebration and Prize Distribution Ceremony truly reflected the cultural pride, academic excellence, and communal harmony of B.L.D.E.A's New Arts College, Tikota. The event instilled among students a renewed sense of respect and commitment towards Kannada language, heritage, and Karnataka's glorious identity.

The event commenced with a solemn prayer and floral tribute to Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri. The Principal, Sri.P.S.Tolanur in his address, highlighted the invaluable contributions of both leaders to the nation and emphasized the importance of truth, non-violence, and simplicity in present times.and our IQAC Coordinator Sri B.S.Belagali Speaks on Role of Mahatma gandhi in nation building. Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of our Nation, led India's freedom struggle with the weapons of truth and non-violence.He united millions of Indians through movements like Non-Cooperation, Dandi March, and Quit India.Gandhiji fought against social evils like untouchability and promoted harmony and equality.His ideals of peace, simplicity, and self-reliance continue to guide our nation even today.And NSS Unit-1 Programme officer Dr.Ravichandra walikar Hod dept of political science Glances on Mahatma Gandhi's principles of truth, non-violence, and peace hold immense significance in the 21st century. In a world facing conflicts, terrorism, and intolerance, his philosophy offers a path toward harmony and mutual respect. His ideas of self-reliance and sustainable living are highly relevant in addressing economic challenges and environmental crises. Gandhi's vision of equality and social justice guides us in fighting discrimination and promoting inclusivity. His simplicity and ethical lifestyle inspire people to rise above materialism and focus on human values. Thus, Gandhi remains a timeless beacon whose teachings continue to guide individuals and nations today. Students delivered thought-provoking speeches on Gandhian philosophy and Shastriji's slogan "Jai Jawan Jai Kisan", reminding everyone of their commitment to national development. Patriotic songs, cultural performances, and a depicting Gandhiji's fight against social evils added depth and inspiration to the celebration. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks,by Sri.G.M.Kamble Dept of commerce acknowledging the efforts of the organizing committee, faculty, and students. The celebration not only paid homage to the great leaders but also instilled in students the values of honesty, discipline, and service to society. SOULFUL TRIBUTE" TO LATE SHRI S. L. BHAIRAPPA BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, under the guidance of the Principal and in collaboration with the Department of Kannada and Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organized a Soulful Tribute to Late Shri S. L. Bhairappa" on 25-09-2025 to commemorate the life, philosophy, and literary legacy of one of India's greatest novelists and thinkers.

The programme began with a lighting of the lamp in honor of the distinguished writer. Principal Sri.P.S.Tolanur delivered the welcome address, highlighting the immense contributions of Shri Bhairappa to Indian literature and philosophical thought. He emphasized Bhairappa's deep insights into Indian culture, ethics, and social values through his timeless works such as Parva, Tantu, Saartha, and Aavarana.

Dr. Santosh Navalagund Head, Department of Kannada, presented a detailed talk on Bhairappa's literary journey, his realistic portrayal of human emotions, and his ability to blend history with contemporary issues. The speaker also underlined his role in reviving moral and cultural consciousness among readers.

Students from the Kannada Department presented readings and short performances based on excerpts from Bhairappa's novels, paying heartfelt homage to the legendary author. The emotional resonance of the event reflected the deep admiration and respect the academic community holds for his monumental contributions.

In his presidential remarks, IQAC Coordinator Sri.B.S.Belagali spoke about Bhairappa's moral courage and his commitment to truth in literature, urging students to draw inspiration from his disciplined and principled life.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Sri.S.B.Uppar, expressing gratitude to the management, faculty, and students for making the event memorable.
