WORLD ENVIRONMENTAL DAY PROGRAMME: 2026

REPORT ON WORLD ENVIRONMENTAL DAY PROGRAMME

B.L.D.E.Association's New Arts College Tikota, The IQAC, Women Empowerment Cell (WEC), Human Rights Cell (HRC), NSS Units 1 & 2, jointly organized the World Environmental Day Programme on 05 June 2026 at 12.00 PM

World Environment Day is observed globally on 5th June every year to create awareness regarding environmental protection and sustainable development. The day reminds humanity of its collective responsibility to conserve nature, protect biodiversity, and ensure a greener future for coming generations. In this regard, the IQAC, Women Empowerment Cell (WEC), Human Rights Cell (HRC), and NSS Units 1 & 2 of B.L.D.E. Association's New Arts College, Tikota, jointly organized a World Environment Day Programme on 05 June 2026 at 12:00 PM.

The programme aimed to sensitize students about environmental challenges such as climate change, pollution, deforestation, depletion of natural resources, and the urgent need for sustainable living practices. The event served as an important platform for promoting environmental consciousness among students and staff members.

Inaugural Session:

The programme commenced with a warm welcome to the dignitaries, faculty members, and students. The gathering was presided over by Sri P. S. Tolanur, Principal of the College, who emphasized the significance of environmental conservation in the contemporary world.

He highlighted that environmental protection is not merely a responsibility of governments and organizations but a moral duty of every citizen.

The chief resource person for the programme was Sri G.M.LKamble, an eminent environmental enthusiast and social activist. The distinguished guest of the programme was Sri S. B. Uppar, who graced the occasion and inspired students with his valuable thoughts on ecological preservation.

Presidential Address:

In his presidential remarks, Sri P. S. Tolanur stressed the importance of maintaining ecological balance and urged students to adopt environmentally friendly practices in their daily lives. He stated that educational institutions play a crucial role in developing environmentally responsible citizens and encouraged students to become ambassadors of environmental awareness.

He quoted:"The Earth does not belong to us; we belong to the Earth."

He further emphasized that environmental sustainability is the foundation for social and economic development.

Resource Person's Address:

The keynote address was delivered by Sri G. M. L.Kamble, who provided an insightful analysis of the current environmental crisis. He discussed various global environmental issues, including climate change, global warming, deforestation, plastic pollution, water scarcity, and loss of biodiversity.

He highlighted the theme of World Environment Day and explained how individual actions can collectively bring about significant environmental change. He urged students to actively participate in tree plantation drives, water conservation initiatives, waste management practices, and the reduction of plastic usage.

During his speech, he remarked: "We do not inherit the Earth from our ancestors; we borrow it from our children."

His thought-provoking presentation inspired students to become active contributors to environmental conservation and sustainable development.

Guest Address;

Sri S. B. Uppar addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of environmental ethics and social responsibility. He spoke about the interrelationship between human rights and environmental protection, explaining that a healthy environment is essential for the realization of fundamental human rights.

He encouraged students to develop eco-friendly habits and participate actively in community-based environmental activities. He appreciated the efforts of the college in organizing awareness programmes that contribute to environmental sustainability.

NSS Perspective:

On behalf of NSS Units 1 & 2, Dr. Ravichandra Walikar, NSS Programme Officer, Unit-1, highlighted the role of NSS volunteers in environmental conservation activities. He explained how NSS serves as an effective platform for nurturing social responsibility and environmental stewardship among youth.

He motivated students to engage in cleanliness drives, tree plantation programmes, water conservation campaigns, and awareness activities aimed at creating a greener and healthier society.

Student Participation:

A large number of students actively participated in the programme. The interactive session enabled students to discuss environmental challenges and explore practical solutions. Students expressed their commitment towards environmental protection and pledged to adopt sustainable practices in their daily lives.

The programme successfully fostered environmental awareness and inspired participants to become responsible citizens committed to safeguarding nature.

Outcome of the Programme:

The programme achieved the following outcomes:

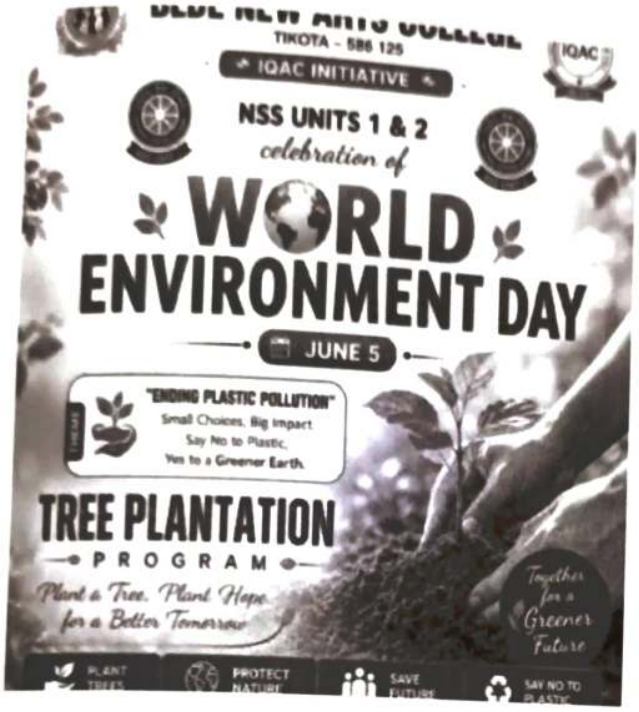

- Enhanced awareness regarding environmental conservation and sustainability.
- Educated students about contemporary environmental challenges.
- Encouraged eco-friendly lifestyles and responsible environmental behavior.
- Motivated students to participate in environmental protection activities.
- Strengthened the commitment of NSS volunteers towards community-based environmental initiatives.
- Promoted the values of sustainable development and ecological responsibility.

The World Environment Day Programme was conducted successfully with enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members. The event served as a meaningful platform for promoting environmental awareness and sustainable practices. The inspiring speeches delivered by the dignitaries motivated students to become active custodians of nature and contribute towards building a cleaner, greener, and more sustainable world.

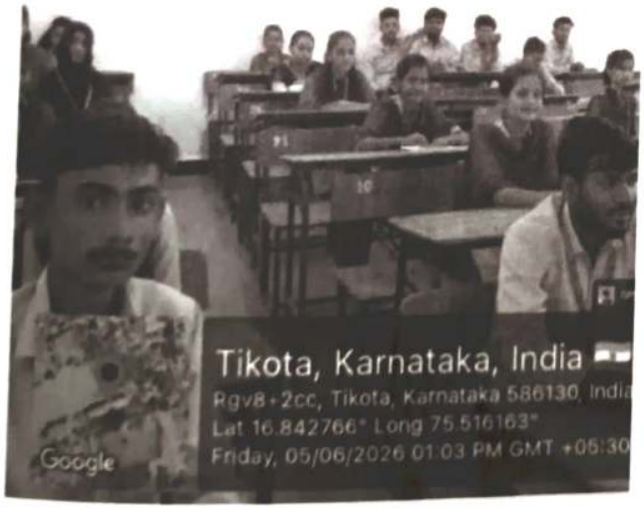

The programme concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks proposed by Sri Krishnamurthy C. N. who expressed gratitude to the President of the function, Resource Person, Guest, Principal, faculty members, organizers, NSS volunteers, and students for their valuable presence and contribution.

The overall coordination of the programme was carried out under the guidance of Prof. B. S. Belagali, IQAC Coordinator, whose support and leadership contributed significantly to the successful organization of the event.

REPORT OF EXTENTION ACTIVITY:TREE PLANTATION PROGRAMME

As a part of its commitment to environmental conservation and community engagement, the IQAC and NSS Units 1 & 2 of BLDE New Arts College, Tikota organized a Tree Plantation Programme at Nidoni Village on the occasion of the Birth Anniversary of the renowned scholar and literary luminary Dr. P. G. Halakatti. The programme was conducted as an extension activity with the objective of promoting environmental awareness, ecological responsibility, and social participation among students and villagers.

The programme reflected the vision of Dr. P. G. Halakatti, who dedicated his life to preserving and enriching Kannada literature and culture. Paying tribute to his invaluable contributions, the NSS volunteers planted saplings to symbolize growth, sustainability, and service to society.

Objectives of the Programme

- To commemorate the Birth Anniversary of Dr. P. G. Halakatti.
- To create awareness regarding environmental protection.
- To encourage students and villagers to participate in a forestation activities.
- To promote ecological balance and sustainable development.
- To strengthen the bond between the institution and the local community.
- To inculcate social responsibility among NSS volunteers.

Inauguration and Dignitaries:

The programme was graced by the esteemed presence of B. M. Patil, Vice Chancellor of BLDE Deemed to be University, and Mahantesh Biradar, whose presence inspired the volunteers and participants. The programme officers of NSS Units 1 Dr.Ravichandra walikar faculty members, Nagaraj Narale, Santosh Navalagund,Sushanth Jawnar,L.B.Desai, S.K.Halalli, L.S.Katral,M.N.Kashe village leaders, NSS volunteers and residents of Nidoni Village actively participated in the event. The dignitaries inaugurated the programme by planting saplings and emphasized the importance of environmental conservation. They highlighted that trees are indispensable for maintaining ecological balance and ensuring a healthy future for coming generations.

Programme Proceedings:

The programme commenced with a warm welcome to the dignitaries and participants. The NSS Programme Officers briefed the gathering about the significance of celebrating the birth anniversary of Dr. P. G. Halakatti through meaningful community service activities. In his address, Vice Chancellor B. S. Patil emphasized that environmental protection is not merely a responsibility but a moral obligation of every citizen. He appreciated the efforts of the NSS volunteers in spreading environmental consciousness and serving society.

Mahantesh Biradar Sir motivated the students to become ambassadors of environmental sustainability. He stressed that planting trees today is an investment in a greener and healthier tomorrow.

Following the inaugural ceremony, NSS volunteers planted various saplings at designated locations in Nidoni Village. The volunteers also educated villagers about the importance of tree care, water conservation, and environmental protection. The villagers enthusiastically joined the plantation drive and assured their cooperation in nurturing the saplings.

Significance of the Programme:

The Tree Plantation Programme served as an effective platform for promoting environmental awareness and community participation. The activity demonstrated how collective efforts can contribute to creating a sustainable environment. The programme also reinforced the NSS motto, "Not Me But You," by encouraging students to work selflessly for the welfare of society and nature.

As rightly said: "The best time to plant a tree was twenty years ago. The second best time is now."

Another inspiring quote reminds us: "A society grows great when old men plant trees whose shade they know they shall never sit in."

These thoughts guided the spirit of the programme and motivated participants to contribute towards environmental conservation.

Outcomes

- Increased awareness regarding environmental protection among students and villagers.
- Enhanced community participation in ecological initiatives.
- Strengthened collaboration between the college and the local community.
- Developed leadership, teamwork, and social responsibility among NSS volunteers.
- Contributed positively to the green environment of Nidoni Village.

REPORT OF GENEVA CONVENTION DAY

PROGRAMME

BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), NSS,YRC,celebrated Geneva convention Day on 02 September 2025. In Geography hall,

Objective of the Program: To create awareness among students about the significance of the Geneva Conventions in promoting humanitarian laws during armed conflicts and to highlight India's commitment to international humanitarian values.

Brief Introduction: The Geneva Conventions are a series of international treaties and protocols that establish standards for humanitarian treatment during war. Celebrating Geneva Convention Day is a tribute to these humanitarian laws and an effort to instill values of peace, dignity, and respect for human life in students.

Program Highlights:

1. Inauguration: The program began with a formal inauguration presided over by our bellowed Sri.P.S.Tolanur, Principal of BLDE New Arts College, and Tikota.

2. Welcome address by Sri.Manjunath Kashe Coordinator's and YRC Program Officer.

3. A keynote address was delivered by Sri.B.S.Belagali, IQAC Coordinator, and HoD Dept of Economics, on the topic: The Relevance of Geneva Conventions in Today's World." The speaker elaborated on the four Geneva Conventions, their importance, and India's role as a signatory.

3. Student Participation: Students actively participated in a speech session and essay competitions on the role of international Red Cross in promoting the Geneva convention and the future of Geneva convention: challenges and opportunities, humanitarian issues and war-time ethics. Selected students presented brief talks on topics like: War and Human Rights Role of Red Cross in War Zones, India's Commitment to Peacekeeping. NSS and YRC volunteers organized a short rally in the nearby community to spread awareness about humanitarian laws and the Geneva Conventions.

Pledge Ceremony: Students and staff took a pledge to uphold values of peace, non-violence, and humanitarian service.

Outcomes of the Event:

Enhanced awareness among students about international humanitarian law.

Encouraged critical thinking and empathy regarding global conflicts and human rights.

Promoted youth participation in peace-building initiatives.

Strengthened the collaborative efforts of IQAC, NSS, and YRC in value-based education.

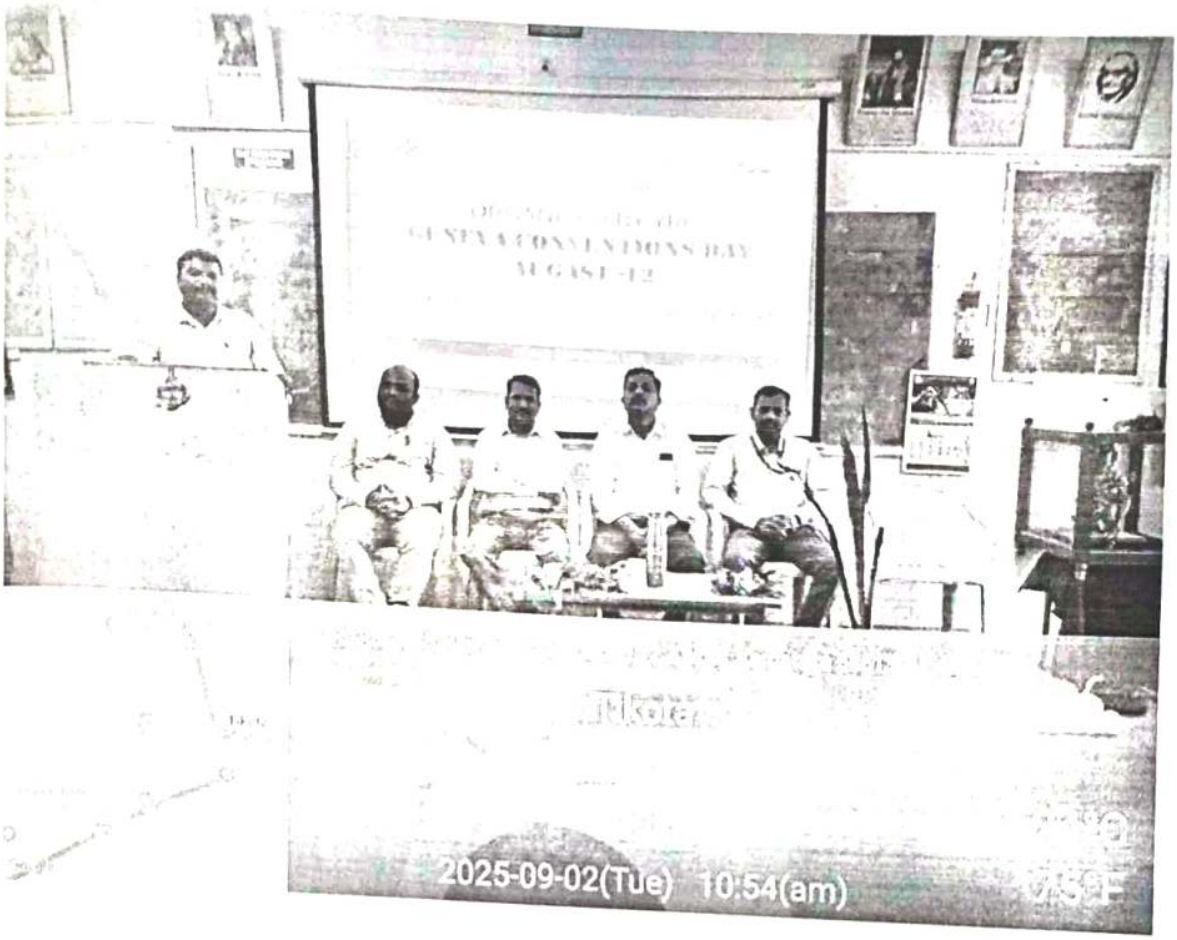

We extend our sincere thanks to the Principal, faculty members, invited guests, student volunteers, and organizing committee members for making this event a success.

The B.L.D.E.A's New Arts College, Tikota, under the joint initiative of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Electoral Literacy Club (ELC), and Human Rights Cell (HRC), (NSS) National service scheme Units 1&2 (EOC) Equal Opportunity cell, Department of Political science, organized a Special Lecture on the occasion of National Constitutional Day on 26th November 2025. The theme of the lecture was "Constitutional Values and Youth Responsibilities", aligning with the national spirit of upholding constitutional morality and strengthening democratic citizenship.

The programme starts with the allocation song by shilpa and team and Introductory Speech by Dr.Ravichandra Walikar HOD Dept of Political science. with a dignified welcome by the organizers, highlighting the significance of National Constitutional Day commemorating the adoption of the Indian Constitution and honouring the visionary leadership of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar and the Constituent Assembly. Sri C. B. Patil, Principal, A.B. Jatti P.U. College, Tikota, and eminent faculty member from the Department of English, graced the event as the Resource Person. His insightful presence added depth and intellectual vigour to the occasion.

Highlights of the Special Lecture:

Sri C. B. Patil delivered a powerful, thought-provoking, and intellectually engaging lecture. His address focused on: Foundational Values of the Constitution: Justice, Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity as transformative pillars shaping India's democratic identity. Constitution as a Living Document, He emphasized that the Constitution evolves with society, requiring active participation and moral commitment from every citizen.

Role of Youth in Nation-Building: The resource person passionately stated that "Young citizens are not merely beneficiaries of democracy but custodians of its future." He urged students to practice constitutional values in daily life—respect for diversity, secular outlook, gender sensitivity, and awareness of rights and duties.

Ethical Citizenship & Democratic Participation: He highlighted the importance of electoral participation, critical thinking, and responsible social engagement. "True democracy flourishes when youth convert constitutional ideals into daily action," he remarked. The lecture was marked by interactive discussions, powerful examples from contemporary socio-political contexts, and inspiring messages that connected constitutional principles with real-life responsibilities.

Student Engagement:

Students actively participated by posing thoughtful questions on constitutional rights, youth empowerment, and the challenges of sustaining democracy in a digital age. Their participation reflected the success of the programme in nurturing constitutional literacy and civic sense.

Institutional Remarks:

Faculty coordinators from IQAC, ELC, EOC NSS UNITS 1&2 and HRC appreciated the resource person for his lucid, impactful, and motivating session. They emphasized that such programmes deepen students' understanding of democratic frameworks and strengthen institutional commitment to value-based education.

Conclusion:

The programme concluded with a formal vote of thanks. And Oath taking. The event proved to be highly enriching, inspiring, and impactful, providing students with a renewed understanding of constitutional ethics and the paramount responsibility of youth in nurturing India's democratic fabric. This special lecture not only celebrated National Constitutional Day with academic excellence but also reaffirmed the college's dedication to promoting constitutional awareness, democratic values, and responsible citizenship among students.

NATIONAL HARMONY DAY

2025-26

REPORT OF NATIONAL HARMONY DAY PROGRAMME

The National Harmony Day was observed with great enthusiasm at BLDE New Arts College, Tikota on 20th August, and the birth anniversary of former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi. The day is celebrated across the country to promote communal harmony, national integration, peace, and goodwill among people of different religions, languages, and regions.

Sadbhavana Diwas is celebrated to commemorate the birth anniversary of former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi on 20th August 2021 at 11:30 am in online mode. Being the youngest Prime Minister, Rajiv Gandhi's thought process was modern and different from others. This day is observed as 'Sadbhavana Diwas' or Harmony Day' with an objective to encourage national integration, peace, affection, and communal harmony among the Indian people of all religions and languages. It promotes the unity in diversity and feeling of oneness amongst people to a great level. It brings a type of racial and cultural similarity among people of different community. Communal harmony is a prerequisite for a country like India, with its diverse population and cultures. Communal harmony ensures that every religion gets equal treatment, and tolerance builds amongst citizens. Dr. Ravichandra Walikar, NSS Programme Officer welcomed the audience and recited the pledge and made all the students to recite the pledge both in English and Kannada. Around 50 students took the oath and pledged to abide by the rules.

PLEDGE: English version:

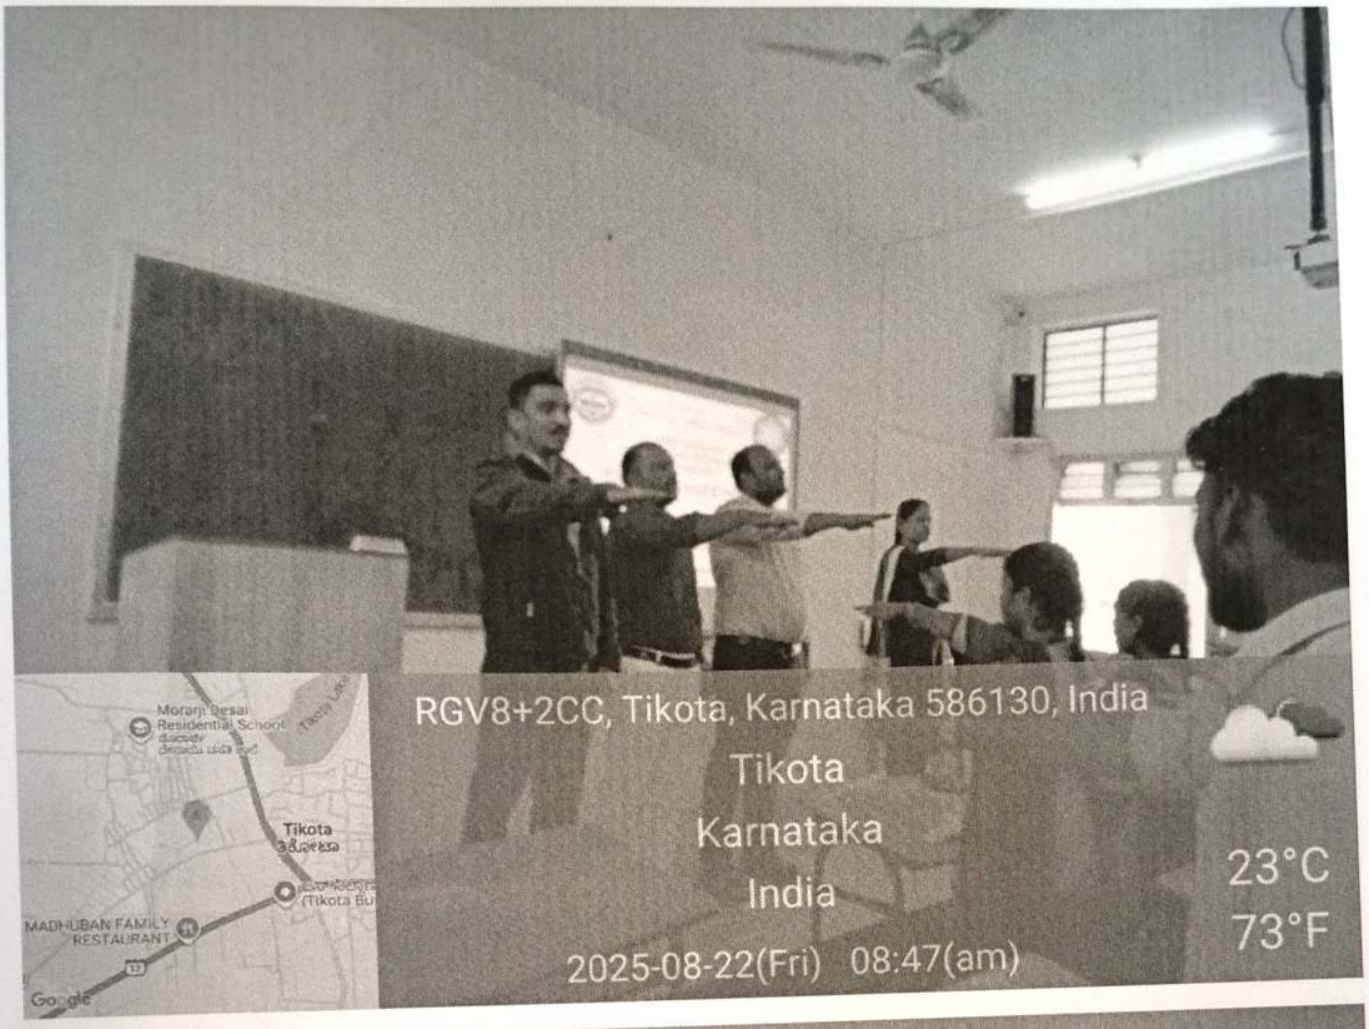

"I take this solemn pledge that I will work for the emotional oneness and harmony of all the people of India regardless of caste, region, religion, or language. I further pledge that I shall resolve all differences among us through dialogue and constitutional means without resorting to violence".

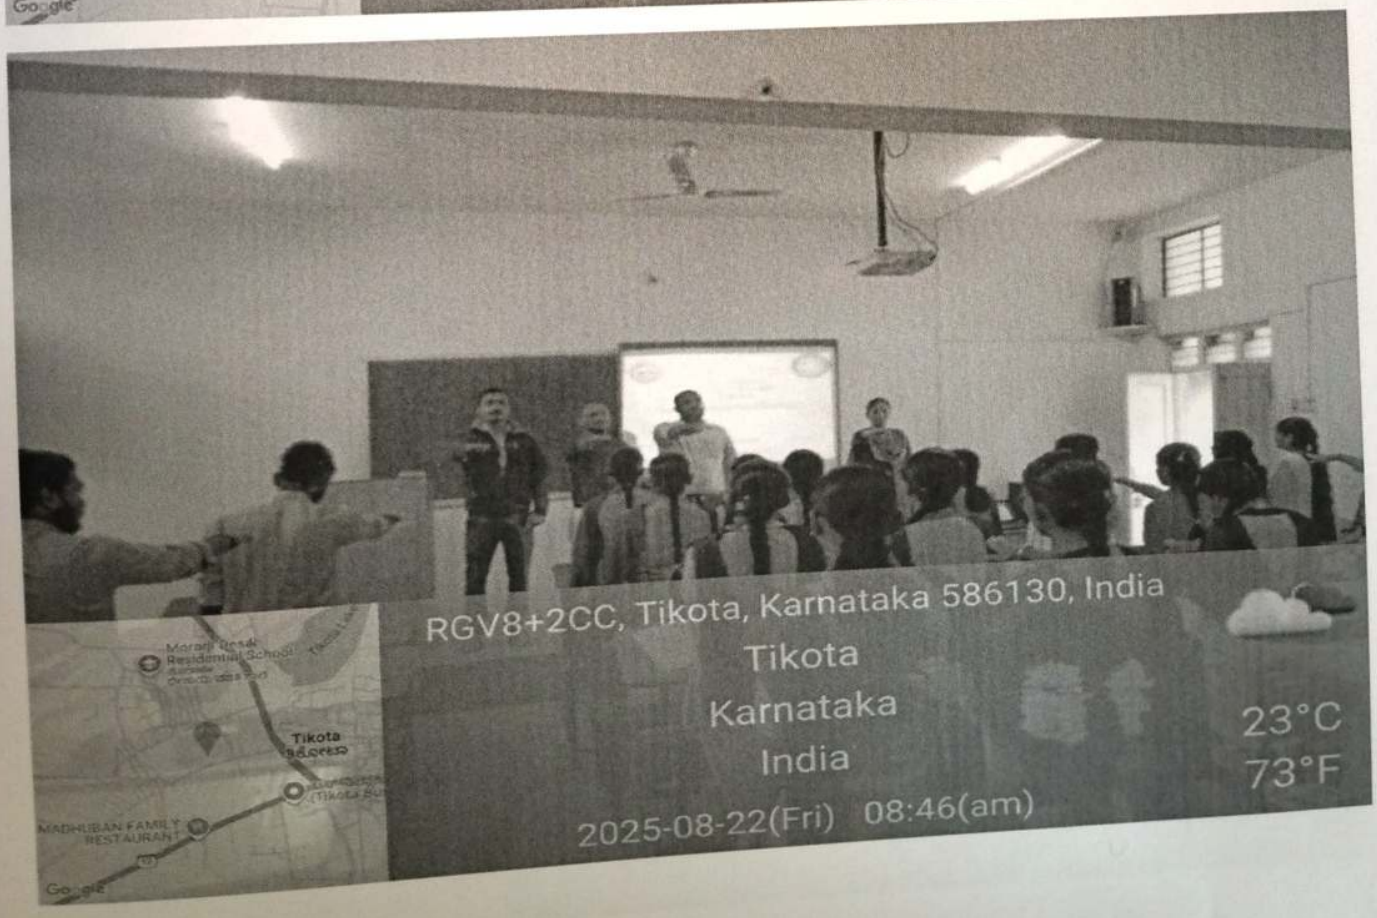

The programme aimed at fostering the spirit of peace, unity, brotherhood, and communal harmony among students and staff. The function began with an invocation song, followed by a welcome address by sri.P.S.Tolanur, which highlighted the importance of harmony in building a strong and peaceful nation. He emphasized that students, as future citizens, must uphold the values of tolerance, respect for diversity, and social integration. On this occasion, the National Harmony Day Oath was administered to all the staff and students. The oath reaffirmed the commitment of everyone present to work towards unity, equality, and mutual respect irrespective of caste, creed, religion, language, or region. Various faculty members and student representatives also spoke about the significance of the day, stressing the need to promote national integration and social harmony in today's context. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks and the singing of the National Anthem, creating a strong sense of patriotism and collective responsibility.

The National Harmony Day Function and Oath ceremony at BLDE New Arts College, Tikota successfully instilled the values of peace, unity, and brotherhood among the students and faculty. It served as a reminder that harmony is the foundation of a progressive and peaceful India. Finally vote of thanks given by our NSS Unit -2 Programme officers Dr.Krishnamurthy C.N.

REPORT OF NATIONAL TEACHERS DAY

PROGRAMME

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), NSS Units 1 & 2, and Scouts and Guides of BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, jointly celebrated National Teachers' Day on 5th September 2025 with great enthusiasm and reverence. The day is observed to commemorate the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, the former President of India, an eminent philosopher, scholar, and a great teacher who dedicated his life to the cause of education.

The programme commenced with the lighting of the lamp and floral tribute to Dr. Radhakrishnan's portrait, symbolizing respect and gratitude towards the teaching fraternity. The Principal, Sri P.S.Tolanur in his inaugural address, highlighted the noble role of teachers in shaping young minds and nation-building. He emphasized that teaching is not merely a profession but a divine mission that nurtures values, wisdom, and character. Students expressed their heartfelt gratitude through cultural performances, speeches, and poems, reflecting their admiration for their mentors. A few students also shared personal anecdotes about how teachers have inspired and guided them in their academic and personal growth.

The Chief Guest, in his address, appreciated the efforts of the faculty in maintaining academic excellence and motivating students to pursue holistic learning. He recalled Dr. Radhakrishnan's philosophy that "true teachers are those who help us think for ourselves." The event concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by an NSS volunteer, followed by the national anthem. The celebration fostered a deep sense of respect, affection, and recognition for the invaluable contributions of teachers in shaping the future of society.

Outcome:

The celebration inspired students to uphold the values of respect and gratitude towards teachers and emphasized the importance of education as the cornerstone of national progress.

REPORT OF NATIONAL REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION PROGRAMME

BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), NSS Unit, Scouts & Guides, and the Department of Political Science, celebrated the 77th National Republic Day on 26 January 2026 with great enthusiasm, dignity, and patriotic fervour at the college ground. The celebration was conducted under the meaningful theme "150th Anniversary of the National Song – Vande Mataram." The theme added historical depth and emotional significance to the occasion, reminding everyone of the song's powerful role in India's freedom struggle and national awakening.

The programme began with the flag hoisting ceremony by the respected Principal, Prof. P. S. Tolanur, whose presence inspired both staff and students. As the tricolour unfurled against the morning sky, the gathering proudly sang the National Anthem, creating a solemn and patriotic atmosphere across the campus. Following the flag hoisting, the Principal addressed the gathering. In his speech, he emphasized the constitutional values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity, and encouraged students to become responsible citizens committed to nation-building. He also reflected on the significance of Vande Mataram in shaping India's nationalist spirit and urged students to uphold unity and integrity. The IQAC Coordinator,Prof.B.S.Belagali, highlighted the importance of quality education in strengthening democracy and reminded students that true patriotism lies in ethical conduct and social responsibility. The NSS Coordinator, Dr. Ravichandra Walikar, spoke about youth participation in nation-building and stressed the role of students in community development, social service, and democratic engagement. He inspired volunteers to contribute meaningfully to society through active citizenship.

The programme witnessed the enthusiastic participation of students through a disciplined march past, showcasing unity and coordination. The Scouts & Guides and NSS volunteers displayed remarkable dedication and team spirit during the parade. To make the celebration more vibrant, students presented cultural performances, including patriotic songs and performances dedicated to the spirit of India. The melodious renditions of patriotic songs filled the atmosphere with pride and emotional resonance, reflecting deep love for the nation. All teaching and non-teaching staff members were present for the event, encouraging students and contributing to the success of the programme. The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the management, organizing committees, staff, and students for making the event a grand success. The programme served as a reminder of the sacrifices of freedom fighters and reinforced the collective commitment to uphold the values enshrined in the Constitution of India. The 77th Republic Day celebration at BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, was not merely a ceremonial event but a heartfelt expression of patriotism, unity, and national pride.

REPORT OF MAHARSHI VALMIKI JAYANTI PROGRAMME

BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), NSS,SCOUTS GUIDES, celebrated Maharshi Valmiki Jayanti on 07 October 2025. In Geography hall, with great enthusiasm, reverence and great devotion under the guidance of Principal Dr. P.S.Tolanur. The college. IQAC Coordinator Prof. B. S. Belagali and NSS Programme Officer Dr. Ravichandra Walikar played a key role in coordinating the programme.

The programme began with the lighting of the lamp and offering of floral tribute to Maharshi Valmiki, the great sage and author of the Ramayana. In his inaugural address, Principal Dr. P. S. Tolanur highlighted the timeless values of righteousness, truth, and compassion depicted in Valmiki's epic, urging students to imbibe them in their personal and academic lives.

Prof. B. S. Belagali, IQAC Coordinator, spoke on the literary and moral contributions of Maharshi Valmiki, emphasizing his message of equality and justice. Dr. Ravichandra Walikar, NSS Programme Officer, in his address, elaborated on the relevance of Valmiki's teachings in the contemporary world, particularly in promoting social harmony and ethical living. In his inspiring address, Dr. Ravichandra Walikar, NSS Programme Officer of BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, highlighted the philosophical and moral significance of Maharshi Valmiki's life and teachings. He described Valmiki as the Adi Kavi — the first poet of India — whose epic, the Ramayana, continues to guide generations with its ideals of truth, duty, and righteousness.

Dr. Walikar emphasized that Valmiki's transformation from a common man to a great sage symbolizes the power of repentance, self-realization, and devotion. He urged students to draw inspiration from Valmiki's journey and to cultivate virtues such as honesty, humility, and compassion in their daily lives.He also underlined the relevance of Valmiki's message in the modern era, stressing the importance of equality, moral integrity, and service to humanity in building a peaceful and inclusive society. Concluding his speech, Dr. Walikar encouraged the youth to follow the path of knowledge and virtue shown by Maharshi Valmiki and to contribute positively to nation-building. Students presented speeches, poems, and songs dedicated to Valmiki's philosophy and life. The event fostered a sense of respect for India's rich cultural and spiritual heritage among the students.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by a student representative, followed by the national anthem. The celebration served as a reminder of Maharshi Valmiki's profound influence on Indian literature, values, and humanity.

The celebration began with the Voters' Oath, administered by the Electoral Literacy Club Coordinator, Dr. Ravichandra Walikar. Students and staff solemnly pledged to uphold democratic values and exercise their right to vote responsibly, ethically, and fearlessly. The oath created a strong sense of civic commitment among the gathering. Dr. Ravichandra Walikar, who also serves as the Head of the Department of Political Science and NSS Programme Officer, delivered the introductory speech. In his address, he explained the significance of National Voters' Day and stressed the importance of electoral awareness among youth. He encouraged students to actively participate in the democratic process and become informed and responsible citizens.

The Principal, Prof. P. S. Tolanur, addressed the gathering and spoke about the strength of Indian democracy, which rests on active citizen participation. He urged students to understand the value of their vote and reminded them that voting is not just a right but a fundamental duty towards the nation. The IQAC Coordinator, Prof. B. S. Belagali, in his speech, emphasized ethical voting and the importance of informed decision-making. He encouraged students to promote electoral literacy within their communities and contribute to building a transparent and accountable democratic system. The programme witnessed the active participation of students, NSS volunteers, and Scouts & Guides, who attended the event with discipline and dedication. The presence of teaching and non-teaching staff further added to the significance of the celebration. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks proposed by Mr. Krishnamurthy C. N., who expressed gratitude to the Principal, coordinators, faculty members, and students for their wholehearted support in making the programme successful.

The celebration of National Voters' Day at BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, served as a meaningful reminder that democracy thrives when citizens actively participate. VYASANA MUKTHA DINA PROGRAMME 2025-26

REPORT OF VYASANA MUKTHA DAY PROGRAMME

BLDEA's New Arts College, Tikota, observed Vyasana Muktha Day (Addiction Free Day) on 13-08-2025 to create awareness among students about the harmful effects of addictions such as tobacco, alcohol, and drugs. The programme aimed at educating youth about leading a healthy lifestyle and building a society free from substance abuse.

Programme Details:

Date: [13 -08-2025]

Venue: College Auditorium Hall

Chief Guest: [S.N.Talawar Health officer]

Presided by: [P.S.Tolanur], Principal, BLDE New Arts College, Tikota

Organized by: NSS Unit, Youth Red Cross & IQAC

Highlights of the Programme:

1. Inauguration: The programme began with an invocation song, followed by a formal welcome.

2. Awareness Talk: The Chief Guest delivered a lecture on the physical, mental, and social consequences of addiction. He/She highlighted the role of youth in spreading awareness and supporting peers to stay away from harmful habits. Special focus was given to the slogan Healthy Youth – Healthy Nation.

3. Pledge: All students and staff took an Addiction-Free Pledge (Vyasana Muktha Pratigna) to lead a disciplined and healthy lifestyle.

4. Student Activities: NSS volunteers organized street plays, poster exhibitions, and slogan recitation on the dangers of addiction. A short video/documentary on the ill-effects of drugs and alcohol was screened.

5. Vote of Thanks: The programme ended with a vote of thanks, followed by the National Anthem.

Outcome of the Programme: The Vyasana Muktha Day celebration motivated students to stay away from substance abuse and inspired them to spread the message of healthy living in their communities. It strengthened the resolve of the youth to become responsible citizens and ambassadors of a drug-free society. The event was a meaningful step towards promoting awareness against addiction. The collective participation of students and staff at BLDE New Arts College, Tikota, made the programme a great success, reinforcing the commitment to a "Vyasana Muktha Samaja" (Addiction-Free Society).
