SPECIAL LECTURE 2025-26

REPORT OF NATIONAL CONSTITUTIONAL DAY

SPECIAL LECTURE

The B.L.D.E.A's New Arts College, Tikota, under the joint initiative of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Electoral Literacy Club (ELC), and Human Rights Cell (HRC), (NSS) National service scheme Units 1&2 (EOC) Equal Opportunity cell, Department of Political science, organized a Special Lecture on the occasion of National Constitutional Day on 26th November 2025. The theme of the lecture was "Constitutional Values and Youth Responsibilities", aligning with the national spirit of upholding constitutional morality and strengthening democratic citizenship.

The programme starts with the allocation song by shilpa and team and Introductory Speech by Dr.Ravichandra Walikar HOD Dept of Political science. with a dignified welcome by the organizers, highlighting the significance of National Constitutional Day commemorating the adoption of the Indian Constitution and honouring the visionary leadership of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar and the Constituent Assembly. Sri C. B. Patil, Principal, A.B. Jatti P.U. College, Tikota, and eminent faculty member from the Department of English, graced the event as the Resource Person. His insightful presence added depth and intellectual vigour to the occasion.

Highlights of the Special Lecture:

Sri C. B. Patil delivered a powerful, thought-provoking, and intellectually engaging lecture. His address focused on: Foundational Values of the Constitution: Justice, Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity as transformative pillars shaping India's democratic identity. Constitution as a Living Document, He emphasized that the Constitution evolves with society, requiring active participation and moral commitment from every citizen.

Role of Youth in Nation-Building: The resource person passionately stated that "Young citizens are not merely beneficiaries of democracy but custodians of its future." He urged students to practice constitutional values in daily life—respect for diversity, secular outlook, gender sensitivity, and awareness of rights and duties.

Ethical Citizenship & Democratic Participation: He highlighted the importance of electoral participation, critical thinking, and responsible social engagement. "True democracy flourishes when youth convert constitutional ideals into daily action," he remarked. The lecture was marked by interactive discussions, powerful examples from contemporary socio-political contexts, and inspiring messages that connected constitutional principles with real-life responsibilities.

Student Engagement:

Students actively participated by posing thoughtful questions on constitutional rights, youth empowerment, and the challenges of sustaining democracy in a digital age. Their participation reflected the success of the programme in nurturing constitutional literacy and civic sense.

Institutional Remarks:

Faculty coordinators from IQAC, ELC, EOC NSS UNITS 1&2 and HRC appreciated the resource person for his lucid, impactful, and motivating session. They emphasized that such programmes deepen students' understanding of democratic frameworks and strengthen institutional commitment to value-based education.

Conclusion:

The programme concluded with a formal vote of thanks. And Oath taking. The event proved to be highly enriching, inspiring, and impactful, providing students with a renewed understanding of constitutional ethics and the paramount responsibility of youth in nurturing India's democratic fabric. This special lecture not only celebrated National Constitutional Day with academic excellence but also reaffirmed the college's dedication to promoting constitutional awareness, democratic values, and responsible citizenship among students.

REPORT

The BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, under the joint initiative of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), National Service Scheme (NSS), and the Department of Education, celebrated National Education Day on 12th November 2025 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, India's first Union Minister of Education and a great visionary leader.

The programme began with a prayer song, by Rakshita H. followed by a floral tribute to Maulana Azad. The Principal, P.S.Tolanur in his inaugural address, highlighted Azad's invaluable contributions to the field of education and nation-building, emphasizing his vision for an inclusive and enlightened India through the power of knowledge.

The keynote speaker Sri.B.S.Belagali Dept of Economics delivered an inspiring talk on the importance of education as a tool for empowerment, progress, and social transformation, drawing upon Maulana Azad's ideals and educational philosophy. Students presented speeches and essays reflecting the relevance of Azad's ideas in contemporary times.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, by Sri.P.B.Patil Dept of Education appreciating the efforts of the organizing committees and participants for their enthusiasm and active involvement.

Outcome:

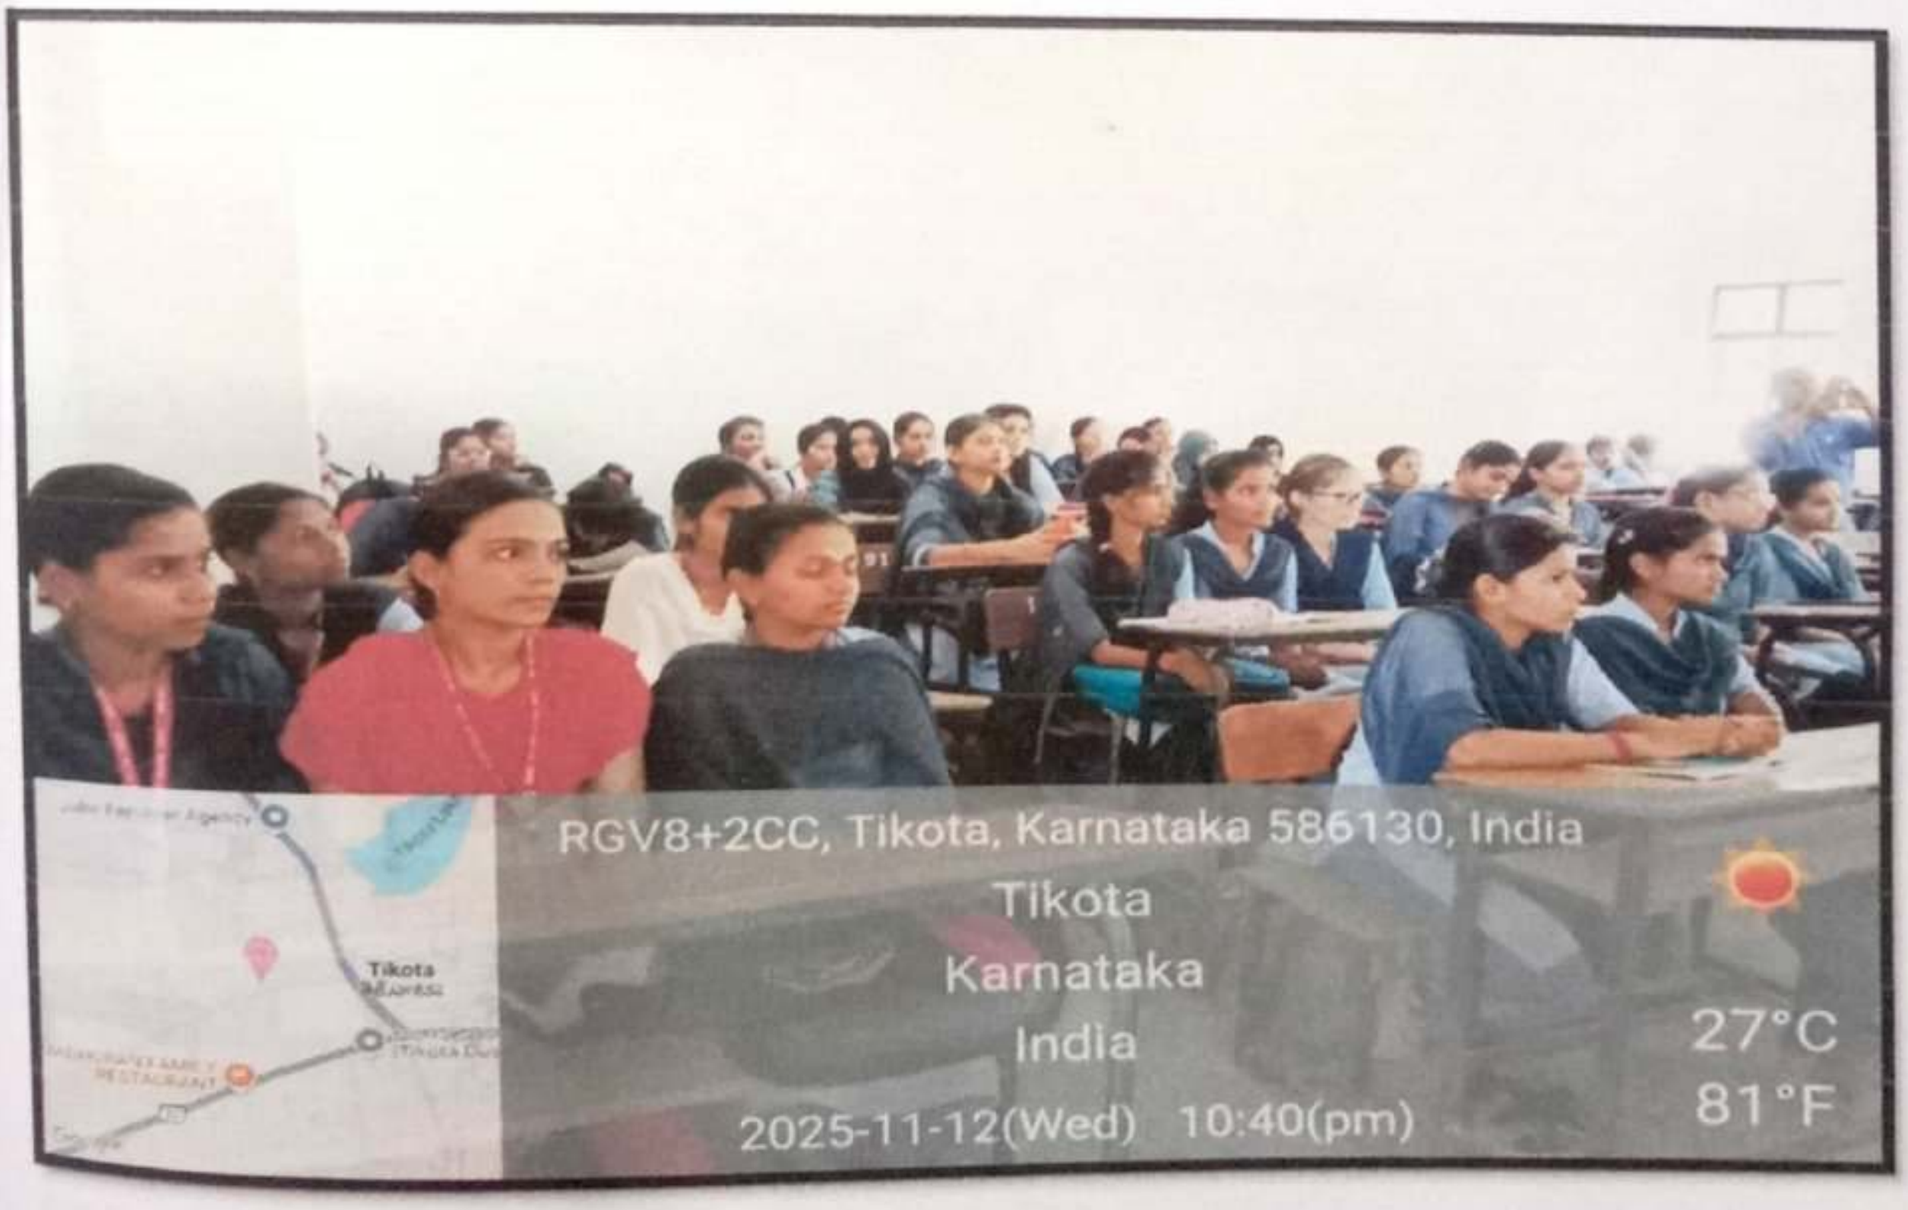

The celebration instilled in students a deeper understanding of the role of education in shaping society and inspired them to uphold the values of learning, tolerance, and national unity envisioned by Maulana Abul Kalam Azad.

REPORT ON NATIONAL YOUTH DAY CELEBRATION

PROGRAMME

BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), NSS Unit, Scouts & Guides, and the Department of Education, celebrated National Youth Day on 12 January 2026 at the Geography Hall with great enthusiasm and inspiration. The programme was organised in commemoration of the historic address delivered by Swami Vivekananda at the Chicago World's Parliament of Religions, an event that continues to inspire generations with its message of universal brotherhood and spiritual strength.

The celebration was conducted under the meaningful theme "Ignite the Self: Impact the World." The theme reflected the essence of Swami Vivekananda teachings self-realisation, confidence, discipline, and dedicated service to humanity. The atmosphere of the hall was filled with positivity and youthful energy as students gathered to honour one of India's greatest spiritual leaders. The programme began with an introductory speech by the NSS Programme Officers, Dr. Ravichandra Walikar and Mr. Krishnamurthy C. N. Dr. Ravichandra Walikar, who also serves as the Head of the Department of Political Science, highlighted the relevance of Swami Vivekananda Chicago address in today's globalised world. He emphasized the importance of character-building, leadership, and social responsibility among youth. Mr. Krishnamurthy C. N. encouraged students to awaken their inner potential and strive for excellence in both personal and social life.

The Principal, Prof. P. S. Tolanur, addressed the gathering with an inspiring message. He spoke about the timeless vision of Swami Vivekananda and urged students to develop self-confidence, courage, and a spirit of service. He reminded them that youth are the backbone of the nation and must play an active role in shaping India's future. The IQAC Coordinator, Prof. B. S. Belagali, in his speech, stressed the importance of quality education, ethical values, and continuous self-improvement. He encouraged students to combine knowledge with character, as envisioned by Swami Vivekananda. The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, NSS volunteers, Scouts & Guides, and faculty members. The event served not only as a celebration but also as a moment of reflection on the responsibilities and immense potential of young minds.

The programme concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Prof. G. M. Kamble, who expressed gratitude to the Principal, coordinators, faculty members, and students for their cooperation and active involvement in making the event meaningful and successful. The National Youth Day celebration at BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, stood as a reminder that when youth ignite their inner strength and purpose, they can truly impact the world just as Swami Vivekananda envisioned.

REPORT OF NATIONAL REPUBLIC DAY

CELEBRATION PROGRAMME

BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), NSS Unit, Scouts & Guides, and the Department of Political Science, celebrated the 77th National Republic Day on 26 January 2026 with great enthusiasm, dignity, and patriotic fervour at the college ground. The celebration was conducted under the meaningful theme "150th Anniversary of the National Song – Vande Mataram." The theme added historical depth and emotional significance to the occasion, reminding everyone of the song's powerful role in India's freedom struggle and national awakening.

The programme began with the flag hoisting ceremony by the respected Principal, Prof. P. S. Tolanur, whose presence inspired both staff and students. As the tricolour unfurled against the morning sky, the gathering proudly sang the National Anthem, creating a solemn and patriotic atmosphere across the campus. Following the flag hoisting, the Principal addressed the gathering. In his speech, he emphasized the constitutional values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity, and encouraged students to become responsible citizens committed to nation-building. He also reflected on the significance of Vande Mataram in shaping India's nationalist spirit and urged students to uphold unity and integrity. The IQAC Coordinator,Prof.B.S.Belagali, highlighted the importance of quality education in strengthening democracy and reminded students that true patriotism lies in ethical conduct and social responsibility. The NSS Coordinator, Dr. Ravichandra Walikar, spoke about youth participation in nation-building and stressed the role of students in community development, social service, and democratic engagement. He inspired volunteers to contribute meaningfully to society through active citizenship.

The programme witnessed the enthusiastic participation of students through a disciplined march past, showcasing unity and coordination. The Scouts & Guides and NSS volunteers displayed remarkable dedication and team spirit during the parade. To make the celebration more vibrant, students presented cultural performances, including patriotic songs and performances dedicated to the spirit of India. The melodious renditions of patriotic songs filled the atmosphere with pride and emotional resonance, reflecting deep love for the nation. All teaching and non-teaching staff members were present for the event, encouraging students and contributing to the success of the programme. The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the management, organizing committees, staff, and students for making the event a grand success. The programme served as a reminder of the sacrifices of freedom fighters and reinforced the collective commitment to uphold the values enshrined in the Constitution of India. The 77th Republic Day celebration at BLDE Association's New Arts College, Tikota, was not merely a ceremonial event but a heartfelt expression of patriotism, unity, and national pride.
