WORLD ENVIRONMENTAL DAY PROGRAMME: 2026

REPORT ON WORLD ENVIRONMENTAL DAY PROGRAMME

B.L.D.E.Association's New Arts College Tikota, The IQAC, Women Empowerment Cell (WEC), Human Rights Cell (HRC), NSS Units 1 & 2, jointly organized the World Environmental Day Programme on 05 June 2026 at 12.00 PM

World Environment Day is observed globally on 5th June every year to create awareness regarding environmental protection and sustainable development. The day reminds humanity of its collective responsibility to conserve nature, protect biodiversity, and ensure a greener future for coming generations. In this regard, the IQAC, Women Empowerment Cell (WEC), Human Rights Cell (HRC), and NSS Units 1 & 2 of B.L.D.E. Association's New Arts College, Tikota, jointly organized a World Environment Day Programme on 05 June 2026 at 12:00 PM.

The programme aimed to sensitize students about environmental challenges such as climate change, pollution, deforestation, depletion of natural resources, and the urgent need for sustainable living practices. The event served as an important platform for promoting environmental consciousness among students and staff members.

Inaugural Session:

The programme commenced with a warm welcome to the dignitaries, faculty members, and students. The gathering was presided over by Sri P. S. Tolanur, Principal of the College, who emphasized the significance of environmental conservation in the contemporary world.

He highlighted that environmental protection is not merely a responsibility of governments and organizations but a moral duty of every citizen.

The chief resource person for the programme was Sri G.M.LKamble, an eminent environmental enthusiast and social activist. The distinguished guest of the programme was Sri S. B. Uppar, who graced the occasion and inspired students with his valuable thoughts on ecological preservation.

Presidential Address:

In his presidential remarks, Sri P. S. Tolanur stressed the importance of maintaining ecological balance and urged students to adopt environmentally friendly practices in their daily lives. He stated that educational institutions play a crucial role in developing environmentally responsible citizens and encouraged students to become ambassadors of environmental awareness.

He quoted:"The Earth does not belong to us; we belong to the Earth."

He further emphasized that environmental sustainability is the foundation for social and economic development.

Resource Person's Address:

The keynote address was delivered by Sri G. M. L.Kamble, who provided an insightful analysis of the current environmental crisis. He discussed various global environmental issues, including climate change, global warming, deforestation, plastic pollution, water scarcity, and loss of biodiversity.

He highlighted the theme of World Environment Day and explained how individual actions can collectively bring about significant environmental change. He urged students to actively participate in tree plantation drives, water conservation initiatives, waste management practices, and the reduction of plastic usage.

During his speech, he remarked: "We do not inherit the Earth from our ancestors; we borrow it from our children."

His thought-provoking presentation inspired students to become active contributors to environmental conservation and sustainable development.

Guest Address;

Sri S. B. Uppar addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of environmental ethics and social responsibility. He spoke about the interrelationship between human rights and environmental protection, explaining that a healthy environment is essential for the realization of fundamental human rights.

He encouraged students to develop eco-friendly habits and participate actively in community-based environmental activities. He appreciated the efforts of the college in organizing awareness programmes that contribute to environmental sustainability.

NSS Perspective:

On behalf of NSS Units 1 & 2, Dr. Ravichandra Walikar, NSS Programme Officer, Unit-1, highlighted the role of NSS volunteers in environmental conservation activities. He explained how NSS serves as an effective platform for nurturing social responsibility and environmental stewardship among youth.

He motivated students to engage in cleanliness drives, tree plantation programmes, water conservation campaigns, and awareness activities aimed at creating a greener and healthier society.

Student Participation:

A large number of students actively participated in the programme. The interactive session enabled students to discuss environmental challenges and explore practical solutions. Students expressed their commitment towards environmental protection and pledged to adopt sustainable practices in their daily lives.

The programme successfully fostered environmental awareness and inspired participants to become responsible citizens committed to safeguarding nature.

Outcome of the Programme:

The programme achieved the following outcomes:

- Enhanced awareness regarding environmental conservation and sustainability.
- Educated students about contemporary environmental challenges.
- Encouraged eco-friendly lifestyles and responsible environmental behavior.
- Motivated students to participate in environmental protection activities.
- Strengthened the commitment of NSS volunteers towards community-based environmental initiatives.
- Promoted the values of sustainable development and ecological responsibility.

The World Environment Day Programme was conducted successfully with enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members. The event served as a meaningful platform for promoting environmental awareness and sustainable practices. The inspiring speeches delivered by the dignitaries motivated students to become active custodians of nature and contribute towards building a cleaner, greener, and more sustainable world.

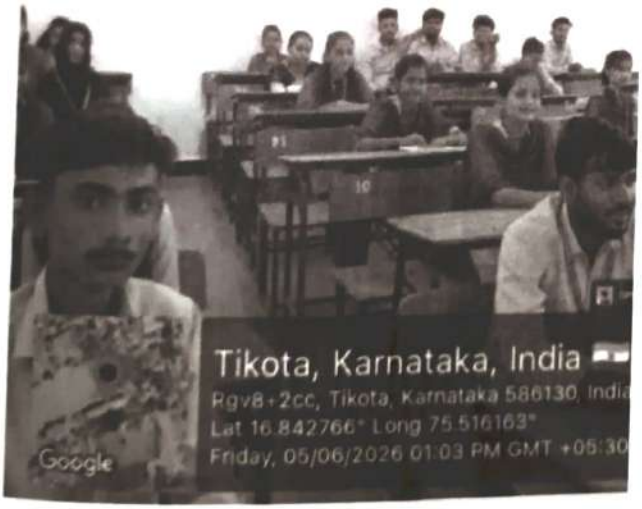

The programme concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks proposed by Sri Krishnamurthy C. N. who expressed gratitude to the President of the function, Resource Person, Guest, Principal, faculty members, organizers, NSS volunteers, and students for their valuable presence and contribution.

The overall coordination of the programme was carried out under the guidance of Prof. B. S. Belagali, IQAC Coordinator, whose support and leadership contributed significantly to the successful organization of the event.

REPORT OF EXTENTION ACTIVITY:TREE PLANTATION PROGRAMME

As a part of its commitment to environmental conservation and community engagement, the IQAC and NSS Units 1 & 2 of BLDE New Arts College, Tikota organized a Tree Plantation Programme at Nidoni Village on the occasion of the Birth Anniversary of the renowned scholar and literary luminary Dr. P. G. Halakatti. The programme was conducted as an extension activity with the objective of promoting environmental awareness, ecological responsibility, and social participation among students and villagers.

The programme reflected the vision of Dr. P. G. Halakatti, who dedicated his life to preserving and enriching Kannada literature and culture. Paying tribute to his invaluable contributions, the NSS volunteers planted saplings to symbolize growth, sustainability, and service to society.

Objectives of the Programme

- To commemorate the Birth Anniversary of Dr. P. G. Halakatti.
- To create awareness regarding environmental protection.
- To encourage students and villagers to participate in a forestation activities.
- To promote ecological balance and sustainable development.
- To strengthen the bond between the institution and the local community.
- To inculcate social responsibility among NSS volunteers.

Inauguration and Dignitaries:

The programme was graced by the esteemed presence of B. M. Patil, Vice Chancellor of BLDE Deemed to be University, and Mahantesh Biradar, whose presence inspired the volunteers and participants. The programme officers of NSS Units 1 Dr.Ravichandra walikar faculty members, Nagaraj Narale, Santosh Navalagund,Sushanth Jawnar,L.B.Desai, S.K.Halalli, L.S.Katral,M.N.Kashe village leaders, NSS volunteers and residents of Nidoni Village actively participated in the event. The dignitaries inaugurated the programme by planting saplings and emphasized the importance of environmental conservation. They highlighted that trees are indispensable for maintaining ecological balance and ensuring a healthy future for coming generations.

Programme Proceedings:

The programme commenced with a warm welcome to the dignitaries and participants. The NSS Programme Officers briefed the gathering about the significance of celebrating the birth anniversary of Dr. P. G. Halakatti through meaningful community service activities. In his address, Vice Chancellor B. S. Patil emphasized that environmental protection is not merely a responsibility but a moral obligation of every citizen. He appreciated the efforts of the NSS volunteers in spreading environmental consciousness and serving society.

Mahantesh Biradar Sir motivated the students to become ambassadors of environmental sustainability. He stressed that planting trees today is an investment in a greener and healthier tomorrow.

Following the inaugural ceremony, NSS volunteers planted various saplings at designated locations in Nidoni Village. The volunteers also educated villagers about the importance of tree care, water conservation, and environmental protection. The villagers enthusiastically joined the plantation drive and assured their cooperation in nurturing the saplings.

Significance of the Programme:

The Tree Plantation Programme served as an effective platform for promoting environmental awareness and community participation. The activity demonstrated how collective efforts can contribute to creating a sustainable environment. The programme also reinforced the NSS motto, "Not Me But You," by encouraging students to work selflessly for the welfare of society and nature.

As rightly said: "The best time to plant a tree was twenty years ago. The second best time is now."

Another inspiring quote reminds us: "A society grows great when old men plant trees whose shade they know they shall never sit in."

These thoughts guided the spirit of the programme and motivated participants to contribute towards environmental conservation.

Outcomes

- Increased awareness regarding environmental protection among students and villagers.
- Enhanced community participation in ecological initiatives.
- Strengthened collaboration between the college and the local community.
- Developed leadership, teamwork, and social responsibility among NSS volunteers.
- Contributed positively to the green environment of Nidoni Village.
